Section 4 – Involvement in Kedem:

Kedem was founded with the vision of engaged participation. This was seen as a meaningful way of being involved in our Jewish community. We aim to create an uplifting spirit & a place where people know each other's names. By joining Kedem you are joining a community that appreciates your involvement. Today part time professionals contribute to running some aspects of Kedem, but we still depend on volunteer assistance.

If you would like to be involved in any of the following, or if you would like more information about any of the following, please fill out the form below. Otherwise, take some time to get to know Kedem, and be in touch at some time in the future about what appeals to you.
