

Your well-being and happiness is important to us. We are here to support and assist you as best we can. Let's get through these challenging times together, with a sense of calm and common sense!

Kedem has always offered help with everyday living through our "Kedem Cares" group. We have provided meals, helped with shopping, transport and home visits, and we are prepared to do all of this in the days ahead.

If you, or someone you know, is feeling unwell or having difficulties with aspects of daily living please let us know, so we can help.
