Presented by Geoff Jenkins
and Leon Sterling

Sunday April 24: Part 1
Thursday May 5: Part II
Sunday May 15: Part III

at 7.30 pm

While Jerusalem is undoubtedly the principal centre of Jewish life and aspirations, there were other centres that are not so well known historically.

In part I we will look at the Jewish military colony at Elephantine (Yeb), Upper Egypt, where there is great record of historical documents including the Passover papyrus.

The second part will look at the temple in Leontopolis established in 145 BCE.

Finally, we will look at sacrifice locations throughout Palestine and Transjordan, including Samaritan temples.

Register with Rosi to attend. There will be in-person and zoom options.
